Suspend/Reactivate Membership (Attach Excuse)

*Membership may be suspended for medical reasons, business/international travel, or for seasonal senior residents only. Excuses on letterhead with estimated return date from physician/employer/senior member are required; a copy of boarding passes or itinerary will be needed for international travel. Should the return date change, we must be notified, in writing, by the 20th of the month prior to the original return date given. Membership suspensions are given by calendar months, no partial month suspensions are available. Please estimate the shortest period needed as once a membership is put on hold, the hold cannot be lifted early; however, it can always be extended.
